PRESENTS

"THE 2027 JANUARY STANLEY DE JONGH MINORITY BAR PASSAGE PROGRAM"

The 2027 Stanley De Jongh Minority Bar Passage Program (MBPP) is designed to improve bar passage rates of law school graduates sitting for the Michigan Bar Exam. Statistics reveal that many law school graduates underestimate the importance of the essay portion on the bar exam. Therefore, while traditional bar review courses focus only on the multi-state part of the exam, the MBPP uniquely focuses on essay writing techniques to help you maximize your overall bar exam results. Also, the MBPP offers a rare and extremely informative live lecture from an actual member of the Michigan Board of Bar Examiners!

Through weekly examinations, a mock bar examination, group and one-on-one sessions, as well as lectures by local attorneys, MBPP provides assistance in the areas of: (i) Essay Writing, Skills/Strategy, (ii) Test Taking Skills/Strategy, (iii) Time Management, and (iv) Stress Management. MBPP does not review substantive law. Accordingly, MBPP should be taken in conjunction with a traditional bar review course to give you the ultimate edge in studying for "both the multi-state and essay sections" of the exam.
